Re: WC Docket No. 02-314 – Application of Qwest
Communications International Inc. for
Authorization to Provide In-Region InterLATA
Service in the States of Colorado, Idaho, Iowa,
Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Utah,
Washington and Wyoming

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On November 20, 2002, representatives of Qwest Communications International Inc. ("Qwest") had a telephone conversation with representatives of the Wireline Competition Bureau to address staff questions regarding the status of proceedings before state utility commissions reviewing interconnection amendments filed in August by Qwest. The Bureau was represented on the call by William Dever, Michael Carowitz and Kim Cook. Qwest was represented by Dan Poole, Todd Lundy, Hance Haney and Peter Rohrbach of Hogan & Hartson. Qwest advised the staff that the Commissions in the above-referenced states now had completed their review of the relevant filings, with the results as reflected in the attached update of the status chart that Qwest has filed previously in this proceeding, most recently on November 18, 2002.

Separately, in a September 5, 2002 ex parte letter, Qwest had indicated that only one CLEC may have had objections to the posting of its contract on the Qwest website. In a November 15, 2002 ex parte, Qwest indicated that the CLEC had given permission to Qwest to post its agreement, and that such posting would occur that day. As a point of clarification, the agreement is between Qwest and Time Warner.

The 20 page limitation does not apply to this ex parte statement.

Sincerely,

Hance Haney
